

Position: Engineer/Designer, Mechanical
Location: Fort Monroe, (Hampton), VA
Job Status: Full-time immediate long-term opportunity

Summary: Experienced engineer/designer in NAVY mechanical Ship Alteration work.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Shipcheck, design, develop drawings in AutoCAD, check and review drawings. Interpret and apply technical correspondence, specifications and manuals.
- Draft technical correspondence.
- Survey and document conditions on-board NAVY ships to facilitate complete and accurate SID development.
- Clear and precise writing and communication of problems and solutions.
- Communicate information and changes to multi discipline program to ensure composite Ship Alteration drawing package.

Education: Mechanical Engineering degree is a plus but not required with 10 years relevant experience.

Experience: At least 10 years of relevant experience. US Navy or shipyard related experience required. HVAC design experience is a plus. Must have demonstrated excellence in writing and communication skills. AutoCAD skills required.

Licenses/Certifications: Describe any.

Ships and Shipyards: Ability and interest to work on ships and in shipyards for approximately 10% of the time.

Travel: Must be willing to travel approximately 5% to 10% of the time. Ability to obtain and maintain a valid driver's license and passport.

Citizenship: Must be a U.S. Citizen

Clearance: Ability to obtain SECRET security clearance

Benefits: Immediate long-term opportunity

MSCorp benefits:

Health: Medical, Dental, and Vision insurance

Leave: Paid time off, holidays, bereavement

Financial: 401K

PLEASE SEND RESUMES TO: jobs@mscorp.net